Friends of the Library book sale raises $1,547.70 for community programs

By Daniel Wilson

As the sun poked out over the Arthur F. Turner Community Library on Jan. 28, book enthusiasts from West Sacramento and beyond packed into the tiny community room on the building's south side for the West Sacramento Friends of the Library book sale.

The weekend book sale, which is held two to three times a year, supports free library programs and activities for the community. It attracted hundreds of people over the course of two days and raised $1,547.70, according to Friends of the and between 300 to 400 people attended. Library secretary Helen MacDonald.

The group also sells books and magazines throughout the year in the library's alcove, which is located just inside the main entrance of the 18,000 square foot facility. The alcove book sales bring in about $600 to $800 a month, according to Bill and Lynda Campbell, longtime Friends of the Library members, who, along with other volunteers, oversee the book sales. "I'm looking for older children's books, especially ones with beautiful artwork," said Sacramento book collector and online book seller Joseph Parker, who added that he heard about the sale online through bookfinder.com. "Also, classic books along with cookbooks, especially older collectible cookbooks."

Another shopper was scanning books with a handheld device to check the titles against an online database to see if they were worth buying for resale.

XiuQing Hu, whose children were picking out a large selection of children's books, said the sale was helping her save money because buying books from retail stores can be expensive.

Prices ranged from 10 cents for magazines, to 50 cents for paperbacks, to $1 for hardcover books. One table had specially-priced items ranging from $5 to $10. DVDs, video games, VHS tapes and more sold for up to $5 each. A $2 off discount was offered to members of the Friends of the Library.

NOTICE TO POTENTIAL BIDDERS: If you are considering bidding on this prop-erty lien, you should understand that there are risks involved in bidding at a trustee auction. You will be bidding on a lien, not on the property itself. Placing the highest bid at a trustee auction does not automatically entitle you to free and clear ownership of the property. You should also be aware that the lien being auctioned off may be a junior lien. If you are the highest bidder at the auction, you are or may be responsible for paying off all liens senior to the lien being auctioned off, before you can receive clear title to the property. You are encouraged to in-vestigate the existence, priority, and size of outstanding liens that may exist on this property by contacting the county recorder’s office or a title insurance company, either of which may charge you a fee for this information. If you consult either of these resources, you should be aware that the same lender may hold more than one mortgage or deed of trust on the property. NOTICE TO PROPERTY OWNER: The sale date shown on this notice of sale may be postponed one or more times by the mortgagee, beneficiary, trustee, or a court, pursuant to Section 2924g of the California Civil Code. The law requires that information about trustee sale postponements be made available to you and to the public, as a courtesy to those not present at the sale. If you wish to learn whether your sale date has been postponed, and, if applicable, the rescheduled time and date for the sale of this property, you may call 800-280-2832 or visit this Internet Web site www.ndscorp.com/sales, using the file number assigned to this case 16- 31254-BA-CA. battles until the end

By Raider Reporters

Battling through a tough season with a young team, the River City boys' varsity basketball team continues to hustle down to the last few weeks of their season to see if they can end on a positive note. The Raiders are currently 2-21 overall, 2-6 in league play with wins coming over Pioneer and Woodland. Despite the record, head varsity coach Justin Thompson remains impressed with his teams' work ethic. "We go after loose balls, box out hard and battle opponents every time we take the floor. We need to learn to execute a game plan for 32 minutes," said Thompson. The adversity that this team has faced is seen as a chance to learn and to get better by many players on the team.

"When things get hard, push through it and give it your all," said junior forward Que Mitchell. "No matter how rough the ride is we continue to work hard, work together and compete. I am very proud of this team," said Thompson.

An Invitation to

West Sacramento

Community Groups

The San Pedro Association founded in 1922 in the Bryte district of West Sacramento is making plans for their 2017 Annual Festa. This traditional two day event takes place in the San Pedro Park on North Hobson near the corner of Lisbon Avenue. First established as an opportunity for the Portuguese families to get together and share the latest news, the event quickly became a Bryte community celebration. Many groups such as the volunteer Fire Department, the local VFW members, school and church organizations were involved by either having a booth at the SP Park, participating in the Sunday community procession to Holy Cross Church or just by having many family members and friends meet up for a fun day with great food and music. This summer's event is planned for June 24 and 25 with games available for all ages. Traditional Portuguese food including Carne de Espita (meat on a spit) will available from 5 pm to 10 pm on Saturday and 11 am to 5 pm on Sunday. There is no charge to enter the park during the Festa hours. This year, the San Pedro Association is hoping to include a large number of local groups to participate by running a game, having a booth selling hand-made items, and/or participating in the Sunday procession. Interested groups wanting to know more about this opportunity are invited to attend a one hour 2017 Festa planning meeting Tuesday, Feb. 28 at 6 p.m. at the San Pedro Park, 708 North Hobson Avenue, Bryte/West Sacramento. The elected Board of Directors meet regularly at 7 pm on the last Tuesday of each month. More information about the Festa is available by visiting the San Pedro Association website at www.SanPedroAssociation.com If your group is interested in this cooperative fundraising opportunity, please contact the President Larry Freitas, 417-1668 or email him at lfreitas@calcompserv.com

Book sale:

The items offered at the sales are donated by the community and Friends of the Library members. In addition, library staff donate items that are outdated or need to be replaced. "I saw the ad in Starbucks and I was really intrigued 'cause I love books and I love that the money is going towards the library so that they can grow and I can come here more often," said West Sacramento resident Paris Jarvis, a fan of books about history who attended the sale with her grandmother Toni Carlson. "I just really like getting used books because you feel more involved with it instead of just getting a brand new book." Touger Vang, programming and outreach librarian and public services coordinator for West Sacramento said the money supports programs like preschool story time, summer reading programs for children and teens, adult book clubs and various guest speakers. Funds also help pay for special collections and other media that can be checked out like movies and video games. Vang said these funds are vital because Yolo County mandates that all of the library's programs are free to the public. "The West Sacramento Friends of the Library play a really critical role in the reach of this branch," said Vang. "They help us by fundraising such as today, you know, when they do the book sales. All the proceeds come and supports all the programming. Without their support, we can't do the things that we do here."

Bill Campbell said any items that are not in sellable condition are hauled to a recycling facility. Proceeds from the recycling go into the fund. Money raised by Friends of the Library is in addition to money the library receives from the city. "The library has a list of things, you know, programs and things like that and how much it's going to cost and everything and so we go ahead and give them the money they need for the programs," Bill Campbell said. "It's a great library and financially we're able to keep it going." West Sacramento Friends of the Library was founded in 1960, 27 years before West Sacramento officially became a city, and the non-profit organization has since supported the library both in its original and current location. "I've really learned about all the services [the library does] for young toddlers, what they do for adults in terms of job education, what they do for teenagers in terms of career preparation," said Alex Hirsch, the current president of the West Sacramento Friends of the Library. "The fact that it serves all the community makes it one of the special places within West Sacramento. The goal is to help support the West Sacramento staff's programs that continue to expand as the population of the city continues to expand." For more information on the West Sacramento Friends of the Library, visit www.yolocounty.org. Those interested in donating books can use the drop box in front of the library, which is located at 1212 Merkley Ave.

Feb. 15: Quarterly meeting of 100+ Women Who Care-Yolo County: 100+ Women Who Care Yolo County is a giving circle that joins women together to amplify their impact by pooling charitable donations to help our local community. At each quarterly meeting the group hears from three local nonprofits working in Yolo County, votes to select the nonprofit that will be the recipient, and donate $100 per person directly to that nonprofit. At the first meeting, the group raised over $13,000 for Yolo County CASA. Our second meeting will be on February 15th at the Odd Fellows Hall in Davis. The group will select one of the following local organizations: Yolo Arts, Camp Kesem, and Yolo Hospice. Goals are to make a big impact with a small time commitment, focus our charitable donations locally, learn about the amazing work being done by our local nonprofits, and amplify our personal philanthropy through power in numbers. The group mingles from 7:00 p.m. to 7:30 p.m. (cash bar available), then the meeting will start at 7:30 p.m. and end promptly at 8:30 p.m. Think what we can do for our communities when we come together: 100 members donating $100 each means a local non-profit receives $10,000 that will go to work right in our communities. There truly is power in numbers! Visit <http://www.100wvcyolo.org/> to learn more. Time: 7:00-8:30 pm; Where: Odd Fellows Hall: 415 2nd Street, Davis, CA 95616; More information: <http://www.100wvcyolo.org/meetings.html>

Individuals are encouraged to consider attending no matter how long ago the suicide occurred. The group meets monthly at Yolo Hospice. There is no fee for this group, funded by the Ladd Clark Memorial Fund and Suicide Prevention of Yolo County. 6 to 7:30 p.m. at Yolo Hospice, 1909 Galileo Court, Davis, 95618.
